Contents

Editorial vii
Keynote Address xv

Part 1: Nation and Nationalism: Ideological Considerations 1

1. Imagining a Nation: Postcolonial Perspectives 3
   Nishant A. Irudayadason
2. From Sovereignty to Solidarity: Redefining Identity Politics 15
   Keith D'Souza
3. "Whose Nation? Whose State?": Subaltern Readings into Constitutional Trajectories 31
   Jose D. Maliekal
4. The Dialectics between Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles 45
   Peter Ladis F.
5. The Nation as an Evolution of Self-Consciousness: An Analysis Based on Hegelian Philosophy 57
   Gregory Mathew Malayil
6. Hannah Arendt: The Political Function of Thinking 67
   Gayatri Mendanha
7. The Role of Intellectuals and the Right to Dissent 79
   Noel D'Costa
8. Becoming an Indian Christian 93
   Victor Ferrao

Part 2: Voices of Indian Nationalism 107

9. Deconstructing the Orientalist Imaging of 'Spiritual' India 109
   John Peter Vallabadoss

10. Science: Not to Silence "Silence": Reflections on the Role of Science in Building a Holistic Nation 121
S. Stephen Jayard
11. Terrorism, Fundamentalism and Nationalism 129
Jose Pennaparambil
12. The Role of Soft Power and Hard Power in Nation Building 141
Francis Arackal Thummy
13. Multiculturalism and Recognition in the Context of Nation Building: Western Questions and the Indian Experience 153
Dolreich Pereira
14. Politics Governing the Reservation Policy 165
S. Sekar Sebastin
15. Symbols of Indian Nationalism: Past Glory and Present Crisis 175
Vianney Maria Joseph

Part 3: Aspects of Nationalism 187

16. Ushering in a New Dawn: Making Poverty History in India 189
Ashley Miranda
17. Winners and Losers in the Development Game 199
Anthony Dias
18. Clash of Nationalisms: Calling for a Gandhian Alternative 211
A. Pushparajan
19. The Nation as an Antinomy: A Note on the Conceptual Logic of Tagore's Dissenting Voice on Nationalism 225
Devasia M. Antony
20. Revisiting Narayana Guru, Periyar and Ambedkar for Secular Modernity in India 233
James Ponniah
21. Subaltern "Space" within the Fabric of Contemporary Indian Society 247
James D. Chellappa
22. Sri Aurobindo: From Politics to Poetics in Post-Modern India 257
Kamladevi R. Kunkolienker

Statement of ACPI Research Seminar on "Becoming a Nation: Processes & Prospects" 265

Contributors 267