

Contents

Preface	xiii
Acknowledgement	xv
Chapter 1: Introduction: The Roots and Rise of Hebrew Prophecy	1
1. Definition of Prophecy	2
1.1. The Term Prophet	2
2. Division of the Prophetic Literature	4
3. Ecstasy and Ecstatic Prophets in the Hebrew Bible	4
4. Exploring the Diverse Forms of Prophetic Speech in the Hebrew Bible	5
5. Formation of the Prophetic Books	7
5.1. The Function of the Prophets	9
5.2. The Development of the Prophetic Oracle	9
5.3. Style of the Prophetic Oracle	10
5.4. Literary Type	11
5.5. Compilation and Transmission	11
5.6. References to the Urim and Thummim in the Bible	14
5.7. Classification, Formation and Structure of Prophets in the Hebrew Bible	15
5.8. Characteristics of True vs. False Prophecy	15
5.9. Foretelling vs Forthtelling	16
6. New Understanding of Prophecy/Prophets	16
6.1. Julius Wellhausen	17
6.2. B. Duhm	17
7. The Socio-Political Role of Prophecy	17

Chapter 2: Prophecy in Ancient West Asia	25
1. Scholarly Approach to Prophecy in Ancient West Asia	26
2. Existence of the Phenomena of Prophecy in AWA Civilizations	27
2.1. Syrian-Palestinian Context	27
2.1.1. Ebla and Emar	27
2.1.2. Ugarit (Second Millennium BCE)	28
2.1.3. Phoenicia	28
2.1.4. Ammon (Tell Deir Alla Inscription, ca. 700 BCE)	28
2.2. Mesopotamian Context	29
2.2.1. Features of Mesopotamian Prophecy	29
2.2.2. Prophets and Titles	32
2.3. Assyrian Context	33
2.3.1. Prophets and Titles	34
2.3.2. Prophetic Roles in Assyria	35
2.4. Egyptian Context	36
2.4.1. Prophecy and Maat: The Admonitions of Ipuwer and the Prophecies of Neferti	36
2.4.2. Ecstatic Prophecy: The Report of Wen-Amon	36
2.4.3. Prophetic Literature and Religious Calendars	37
2.4.4. Distinctive Features of Egyptian Prophecy	37
2.5. West Semitic and Hittite Context	38
3. Comparative Analysis of Prophecy	39
3.1. Similarities with Biblical Prophecy	39
3.2. Differences with Biblical Prophecy	41
4. Implications	44
Chapter 3: The Development of Prophetic Ministry: From Moses to the Early Monarchy	47
1. Pre-Monarchic Prophets	47
1.1. Moses as a Prophet	47
1.2. Judges (Deborah & Samuel) as Prophets	49
1.2.1. Deborah	49
1.2.2. Samuel	51
1.2.3. Early Prophetic Guilds	52
2. Prophetic Ministry During Monarchical Period	54
2.1. United Monarchy (Samuel and Nathan)	54

2.1.1. Nathan	55
2.2. Prophecy in the Ninth Century (Ahijah, Elijah, Elisha and Micaiah ben Imlah)	57
2.2.1. Ahijah	58
2.2.2. Elijah	59
2.2.3. Elisha	63
2.2.4. Micaiah ben Imlah	65
Chapter 4: Eight Century Prophets: Amos, Hosea, Isaiah & Micah	67
1. Amos	68
1.1. Amos and Other Prophets	70
1.2. Purpose and Message	71
1.3. The Forms of Speech used by Amos	72
1.3.1. Commission-Bound Messenger or Speech	72
1.3.2. Free Witness-Speech	73
1.3.3. Vision Reports	74
1.3.4. Other Types	74
1.4. The Message of Amos	75
1.4.1. How Does Amos Speak of Yahweh?	75
1.4.2. The Exploitation of the Poor	76
1.4.3. Amos Criticism of the Cult and the Search for God	77
1.4.4. Mispat and Sedaqa	78
1.4.5. The Down Fall of the Neighboring Nations	79
2. Hosea	79
2.1. Historical Period	81
2.2. Structure	82
2.3. Theological Themes	82
2.4. Approaching the New Testament	85
3. Isaiah	85
3.1. Scholar's View of the Authorship	86
3.2. Historical Period	87
3.2.1. The Syro-Ephraimite Crisis	88
3.2.2. The Fall of Samaria	90
3.2.3. Alliances with the Philistines and the Egyptians	90
3.2.4. The Assyrian Crisis	91
3.3. Themes	92

3.3.1.	God as the Holy One of Israel	93
3.3.2.	God as Savior and Redeemer	93
3.3.3.	The Remnant Theme	94
3.3.4.	The Servant of the Lord	95
3.3.5.	The Spirit of the Lord	96
3.3.6.	God's Rule Over History	97
3.3.7.	Bifid Approach to Isaiah	98
3.4.	Approaching the New Testament	99
4.	Micah	99
4.1.	Historical Period	101
4.2.	The Language of Micah	102
4.2.1.	Style	102
4.2.2.	Genre	102
4.3.	Message of Micah	104
4.4.	Theological Themes	105
4.5.	Approaching the New Testament	106
Chapter 5:	Seventh Century Prophets (Jeremiah, Zephaniah, Nahum & Habakkuk)	109
1.	Socio-Political Context of the 7 th Century: The Role of Josiah the King and Reformer	109
2.	Jeremiah	111
2.1.	Historical Period of Jeremiah	112
2.2.	Symbiotic Relationship Between God, Land and People in Jeremiah	118
2.3.	Jeremiah's Rhetoric as (Speech) the great Preaching	118
2.3.1.	Repetition	119
2.3.2.	Accumulation	119
2.3.3.	Metaphors and Related Rhetorical Devices	119
2.3.4.	The Exaggerated Contrast	121
2.3.5.	Drama	121
2.4.	Prophetic Symbolism: Act and Being	121
2.5.	The Message of Jeremiah	122
2.6.	Theological Themes	123
2.6.1.	Jeremiah's God	123
2.6.2.	The People and the Covenant	124

2.6.3. God's Word in Jeremiah	125
2.6.4. Jeremiah and Moses	125
2.6.5. Hope for the Future	126
2.7. Approaching the New Testament	127
3. Zephaniah	128
3.1. Historical Background	128
3.2. The Theology of Zephaniah	129
3.3. Theological Themes	130
3.4. Approaching the New Testament	131
4. Nahum	132
4.1. Historical Background	132
4.2. The Poetic Style of Nahum	134
4.3. The Message of Nahum	135
4.4. Theological Themes	135
4.5. Approaching the New Testament	136
5. Habakkuk	137
5.1. The Historical Context	138
5.2. Literary Forms in Habakkuk	138
5.3. Theological Themes	139
5.3.1. God's Freedom and Righteousness in Judgment	139
5.3.2. The Final Triumph of God's Righteousness	139
Chapter 6: Prophetic Ministry During the Exilic Period (Ezekiel and Isaiah-Chaps. 40-55)	143
1. Ezekiel	144
1.1. Historical Background	144
1.2. Structure	145
1.3. Form of Speeches in Ezekiel	146
1.4. Message	146
1.5. Approaching the New Testament	147
2. Second Part of the Book of Isaiah (40-55 Chaps): -	147
2.1. Forms of Speech in Chapters 40-55	151
2.1.1. The oracle of Salvation	151
2.1.2. The Hymn	153
2.1.3. The Trial Scene	154
2.1.4. The Disputation	155

2.1.5. The Servant of Yahweh	156
2.1.5.1. Collective Interpretations	157
2.1.5.2. Individual Interpretations	159
2.1.5.3. The Christological Interpretation	162
2.1.6. Uniqueness of God	163
2.1.7. The Prophet's Presentation of History	166
2.1.8. Election and Covenant	168
2.1.9. Comfort and Hope to the Exiles	170
2.1.10. Cyrus	171
Chapter 7: Prophetic Response During the Post-Exilic Context (Isaiah 56-66, Haggai, Zechariah and Malachi)	173
1. Isaiah 56-66, the Third Part of Isaiah (Trito-Isaiah)	176
1.1. The Historical Context of the Prophet	176
1.2. Features of Third Part of the Book of Isaiah (chapters 56-66)	179
1.2.1. Judgment Oracles	179
1.2.2. Laments (Isaiah 59:1-15a; 63:7-64:12)	180
1.2.3. Portrayal of the Divine Warrior (Isa 59:15b-20; 63:1-6)	181
1.2.4. Oracles of Both Judgment and Salvation (Isa. 65:8-16)	182
1.3. Rhetorical Devices	182
1.4. Theology of Third Part of the Book of Isaiah (chapters 56-66- Trito-Isaiah)	183
2. Haggai	184
2.1. The Historical Setting	184
2.2. Haggai's Message	186
3. Zechariah	187
3.1. Literary Form of Zechariah	187
3.2. The Message of Zechariah	188
3.2.1. The Age of Responsibility	188
3.2.2. The Present Reality of Restoration	189
3.2.3. The Era of Restoration: Fulfilment of the Promises	190
3.2.4. The Humble and Glorious Messiah	191
3.2.5. The Eight Night Visions: Divine Communication and Symbolic Imagery	192

3.3. Recent Scholarship Zechariah 9-14	195
3.4. Approaching the New Testament	195
4. Malachi	196
4.1. Historical Setting	196
4.2. Form of Malachi	198
4.3. Message of Malachi	198
Chapter 8: Methodological Issues in Prophets	201
1. Historical-Critical Reading of Prophets	201
2. Sociological Reading of Prophets	202
3. Postcolonial Reading of Prophets	202
4. New Literary Reading of Prophets	203
5. Dalit Reading of Prophets	204
Appendix 1: Sample Exegesis: English Exegesis: An Exegetical Study of Amos 3:1-8	207
1. Introduction	207
2. Translation	207
3. Historical-Cultural Background	208
3.1. Historical Setting	208
3.2. Cultural Practices	209
3.3. Immediate Context	209
4. Literary Analysis	209
4.1. Grammar and Syntax	209
4.2. Form/Structure/Setting	210
5. Textual Comment	211
6. Explanation	213
7. Theological Concepts	213
7.1. Amos and Yahweh's Sovereignty	213
7.2. Covenant and Responsibility	214
7.3. Divine Justice and Judgement	214
8. Perspectival Study	214
8.1. Source Criticism: Unveiling the Origins	214
8.2. Form Criticism: Analysing Genre and Structure	215
8.3. Redaction Criticism: Theological and Editorial Shaping	215
8.4. Sociological Criticism: Context and Implications	216

8.5. Post-Colonial Criticism: Power and Resistance	216
9. Application	216
10. Conclusion	217
Appendix 2: Hebrew Exegesis of Hosea 3:1-5	219
1. Introduction	219
2. Literal Translation of Hosea 3:1-5	219
3. Translation	220
4. Form, Setting and Structure	220
5. Context of the Passage	221
6. Syntax	222
7. Parsing	223
8. Critical Apparatus	223
9. Textual Comments and Word Study	224
10. Perspectival Study	226
10.1. Traditional Criticism	226
10.2. Gender and Ideological Criticism	226
10.3. Redaction Criticism	227
11. Conclusion	227