

Contents

Preface	ix
Chapter 1: Introduction	1
The Nature, Purposes, Task, Scope and Method of Old Testament Theology	7
a) Old Testament Theology and Scholastic Orthodoxy	22
b) Old Testament Theology and Pietism	25
c) Old Testament Theology and Rationalism	27
Chapter 2: Important Old Testament Theologians	37
a) Otto Procksch	37
b) Robert Dentan	41
c) G. Ernest Wright	48
d) Edmond Jacob	51
e) Theodore C. Vriezen	53
f) Walter Eichrodt	59
g) Gerhard von Rad	65
Old Testament Theology Since 1970	73
a) John L. McKenzie	73
b) Ronald E. Clements	75
c) Walter Zimmerli	80
d) Claus Westermann	83

e) Walter C. Kaiser	89
f) Brevard S. Childs	91
g) Walter Bruggemann	94
h) Chris Wright	99
i) John Goldingay	101
j) Bruce K. Waltke	104
k) Leo G. Perdue	106

Chapter 3: Few Continuing Methods and Approaches Issues in the Discipline of OT Theology 111

a) Plurality of Old Testament Theologies	111
b) The Problem of History Tradition and Story	113
c) The Problem of Centre of the OT	114
d) The Relationship between the Old Testament and New Testament	121
e) The History of the Israelite Religion and OT Theology	127
f) The Canon and the OT Theology	128
g) The Problem of Biblical Theology	131

Chapter 4: Important Theological Topics in the Old Testament to be Studied in an Integrated and Inter-disciplinary Approach 135

a) Creation, Stewardship, Responsibility and Role of Women	135
b) Image of God in Human beings and Equality	138
c) Covenant	142
d) Election	145
e) Promise	146
f) Liberation	148
g) Sin and Salvation	150
h) Suffering	152
i) Judgement	154
j) Righteousness	155
k) Justice	157

l) Wisdom	159
m) Law	161
n) Monarchy	162
o) Kingship of God	164
p) Cult and presence of God	166
q) Prophecy	168
r) Land	169
s) Shalom	172
t) Messiah	174
Chapter 5: Issues in the Old Testament	177
a) Henotheism, Monotheism, and Universality of the Kingship of Yahweh	177
b) Jewish Excluvism: Zion vis a vis Samaria	182
c) God's Favor and Wrath	185
d) Land and Inheritance	186
e) Punishment and Restoration	188
f) Blessings and Curses	189
g) Neighbors and Enemies	191