

Contents

In Gratitude...	ix
Introduction	xi

Part-I: Democracy, Civil Society and Indian Christianity

1. Modernity, Democracy and Indian Christianity	3
2. Being Indian, Being Christian: A Theo-Political Existential	19
3. Indian Christianity, Civil Society, and the Democratic Process in India	33
4. Being a Minority 'Other': The Case of Indian Christians Today	45
5. Human Rights and Religion in India: The Communitarian Turn and its Challenges	59

Part-II: Public Theological Potentials – The Catholic Wellspring

6. Faith and Reason: John Paul II's Fides et Ratio and Religious Studies in India	71
7. Post-Vat II Catholic Theologies in India: A Bird's Eye View	85
8. Civic Communitarianism and the Catholic Social Teaching (CST): An Indian Appreciation	121
9. Pope Francis, Culture of Encounter, the Common Good, and Dharma: Public Theological Conversations Today	139
10. Pope Francis and Political Engagement: A Public Theological Model	157
11. The Synodal Church Engaging Civil Society: Journeying together, towards Frontiers...	165

Part-III: Religions, Public Conversations, and Strivings for Freedom

12. Interfaith Dialogues: New Horizons and Pathways	183
13. Public Theological Conversations on Cities	193

14. Ayya Vazhi's Emancipatory Potentials	205
15. Tamil Buddhist Strivings for Freedom: Exploring the Religious Initiatives of Pandit C. Iyothée Thasar	223
Bibliography	239